

BRAINERD PUBLIC MARKET DEMONSTRATES ITS WORTH

CHAMBER COMMERCE PAYS RENT OF BLDG.

Chairman P. B. Nettleton, of Special Chamber of Commerce Committee, Makes Glowing Report

Supply of Produce Not Equal to Demand--- Free Auction and Market Day Set for September 25

The Brainerd Public Market has demonstrated its worth, and, as stated by Chairman P. B. Nettleton, the demand for products now exceeds the supply.

In his ample report made to the Chamber of Commerce at Wednesday night's regular session of the Chamber, Mr. Nettleton, chairman of the special market committee, stated:

"The Rubicon of the Public Market was passed when at its last meeting the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce appropriated $60 for two months' rent for two suitable rooms in the Gardner block. Through the generosity of Senator Geo. H. Gardner the use of these two rooms was made free for two months. So this provides a market place for four months try out of the proposition, extending to January 1st.

"The next thing necessary was a competent manager. John F. Hurley generously agreed to act for one month for the uncertain compensation of 5 per cent of the sales. So the Brainerd Public Market was informally started Sept. 1, 1917.

"The press of the city were most generous in giving free publicity to the enterprise. What success has been obtained is largely due the press and this recognition is most cheerfully accorded.

"The market starts off with many encouraging features, in fact, better than this committee expected. The supply of produce is not yet equal to the demand. We hope this will be changed soon, as the producers find they can make ready sale to consumers for ready cash.

"The following are some of the receipts of individual farmers and gardeners: L. Lemire $36.40, C. Miller $53.95, T. E. Dahljeim of Barrows $63, DeRoche of Fort Ripley $21, Z. Barrett $23, Frank Straugh $17.50, etc.

"Sales the last five days run as follows: Thursday $43.25; Friday $48.15, Saturday $65.35, Monday $61.05, Tuesday Sept. 11, $49. The average daily sales being $53.36 for that time.

"C. E. Miller, four miles north of Brainerd, has received a check for over $40 the past week, says this market is the best thing that has struck Brainerd."

"It is now up to the farmers and others to bring in their products and to our citizens to buy it. The buyers are ahead so far and would buy more if it was offered.

"We contemplate adding a larger purchasing department as soon as practicable and extending its usefulness to cover a larger field as fast as possible.

"Our hearty acknowledgements are due to all those who have given encouraging words and deeds. To the ladies of Brainerd and others and especially to Manager John F. Hurley and his able and efficient assistant, without pay, the old soldier, Albert Fox."

P. B. NETTLETON, Chairman, Special C. of C. Market Committee. The report was accepted and thanks extended the committee for its efficient work and splendid results achieved.

Mr. Nettleton reported this committee to aid him. C. A. Albright and Fred T. Lincoln.

In line with this Brainerd Public Market which now operates every day in the week except Sunday, is the work of the Retail Trade Committee of the Chamber of Commerce which is completing preparations for the Free Auction and Market Day Sept. 25 and which will bring to Brainerd scores of the country's best farmers that day.

The report of the committee of which Carl Adams is chairman, reads as follows:

"Plans for a free auction and market day similar to the one held last spring and which proved a big success, have been made by this committee and the day set for Tuesday, Sept. 25, at which time merchants will give special bargains for the benefit of the country trade and a free auction for the benefit of farmers exclusively will be conducted. Lunch will be served to holders of tickets at the Chamber of Commerce at noon and a big get-together day held at Brainerd.

"Your committee has placed a full page of advertising with permanent merchants and respectfully recommend that the Chamber of Commerce take one of the spaces at $5 to show its spirit of cooperation in the plan.

"We further recommend that business men make it a point to take lunch with our country visitors Tuesday, Sept. 25 and do everything in their power to make the visit of the farmers to Brainerd a pleasant one."

The report was accepted and recommendations adopted.

W. H. Gemmel, chairman of the Public Affairs committee, reported that the second car of waste paper has been collected and shipped and returns from the same are expected within a week or ten days. It is expected that this car will net approximately as much as the first car, namely $115. He further reported that nearly half a car has been collected for the third shipment, and the contract for the same, at the same prices secured for the second car has been received by the secretary. It is hoped that this car can be shipped the last week in September.

"The shippers come from all walks of life and the plan is receiving substantial endorsement from the people. We believe that $1,000 annually can be saved to Brainerd in this manner, and respectfully urge that business men and others save their paper and have it shipped through this medium as it will assist small shippers in securing a low freight rate," said Mr. Gemmel in conclusion.

The report was accepted and ordered filed.

Secretary Lincoln reported continued correspondence with reputable commission houses with an idea of locating one in Brainerd to afford a permanent and regular market for all farm produce to be shipped in car lots or otherwise. He noted the agreement of one representative to visit Brainerd in the near future to look over the situation.

Receipt was acknowledged of the invitation from Howard Strong, secretary of the National Association of Commercial club secretaries to join the Minnesota party going to the national convention in Chicago on Sept. 25 and 26.

The Non Partisan League invited the Chamber to have representatives at the meeting in St. Paul in the near future. R. B. Withington spoke on the actions of the league in the Dakotas where he has farming interests. A motion followed that the Chamber send no delegation to the Non-Partisan League.

Yeggmen Get Loot

Shlocton, Wis., Sept. 13—Yeggmen blew the safe and escaped with $8,000.

With cash prizes amounting to $500 to be distributed among potato growers, young and old and prospects for a record breaking attendance from the northern section of the state as well as from counties south as far as Hennepin county, the winter meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development Association at Brainerd on December 6-7 promises to eclipse any previous meeting in the history of the organization.

Potatoes will hold the center of the stage and following the plan of the N. M. D. A. to specialize on one particular leading crop, the seasons, program and exhibits will be devoted exclusively to the "Murphy family." It is expected that at least 250 bushels of aristocrats of the "Murphys" will be on exhibition, keen rivalry among the boys and girls for the prizes in their contest is certain and the county contests promise equal interest and competition.

It is generally conceded that the executive board of the N. M. D. A. acted wisely in making this appropriation, to make possible the exhibit of the Minnesota Potato Growers association at the mid-winter meeting to be held in Brainerd. An appropriation of $300 has already been made for the Boys and Girls contest and it has taxed the finances of the association considerably to add this additional load but it is expected that counties which have in the past been more or less indifferent and back in the payment of their assessments, will now come in and help out financially, as the importance of the exhibit and of bringing northern Minnesota into the prominence it deserves as a seed potato growing section is apparent.

The Minnesota Potato Growers Association exhibit will be held in conjunction with that of those in the Boys and Girls contest, although separate and there be one general program, all under the supervision of the N. M. D. A. and the following special committee: A. B. Hostetter, chairman, Duluth; E. A. Colquhoun, county agricultural agent of Brainerd; Otto I. Bergh, Grand Rapids; R. R. Wise and Fred T. Lincoln, Brainerd.

Expensive all-star casts do not appear to worry the producers of World Brady pictures much. They have been appearing in the last few releases with surprising regularity. The most recent release, "All Man" presents another exceptional cast. Two young ladies who are both big favorites, and each have large personal followings, have big parts which they present perfectly. These girls are Gerda Holmes and Mollie King.

The two young ladies mentioned above would ordinarily be enough to carry any story of the five thousand foot length. In this play, however, an even bigger star appears. This star is a man for whom the public is daily clamoring and who evidently cannot make pictures fast enough to suit the popular demand—Robert Warwick.

If you enjoy a splendid story splendidly acted, do not miss seeing the unbeatable combination here offered which will be at the Empress theatre tonight.

Thousands Join in Anti-German Demonstration.

DESTROY BUSINESS HOUSES

Several Blocks of Teuton Buildings Are Burned, Including the German Club, One of the Finest Edifices in the Argentine City.

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 13.—The downtown section of the city was the scene of the wildest disorders in connection with great anti-German demonstrations, in which thousands of Argentines took part.

Many of those in the mobs carried firebrands and as a result scores of buildings were set on fire.

Several blocks of German business houses in Calle de Mayo were destroyed.

Among the structures attacked were the German club, one of the finest edifices in the city, and the building of the German daily, Le Union.

As fast as the fires in these buildings were extinguished they were started again.

Mounted patrols and the entire fire department kept rushing from one part of the city to another in an attempt to quell the rioters and put down the flames.

In several instances police, who were attempting to shoot at those wielding torches, were set upon by the crowds and disarmed.

Minister Given Passports.

The decision to hand Count von Luxburg, the German minister, his passports was reached by President Irigoyen after a conference with the foreign secretary, the president taking the step without consulting the cabinet.

The president maintained that the matter was grave enough to warrant his immediate decision without reference to the cabinet.

It is believed to be unlikely that any action will be taken toward Sweden, the explanation by the Swedish legation, made before a demand for it had been sent to the legation, apparently satisfying the government that Baron Lowen acted in good faith in forwarding the telegrams, the contents of which were unknown to him.

If the German government disapproves of the text of the German minister's dispatches and especially of the word "ass," which term the count applied to the Argentine foreign minister, the situation may clear. If Berlin does not disavow the minister's course Argentina will recall her minister from Germany, but may permit the legation to remain.

LITTLE MILITARY ACTIVITY
Austrians Fail to Dislodge Italians From New Positions.

London, Sept. 13.—On the battle fronts the military activity generally is far below that of past weeks. On the line in France and Belgium only artillery duels and comparatively small operations by the infantry are being carried out.

Some further advances have been made by the French in Champagne, near St. Souplet, where General Pettain won three lines of trenches.

Monte San Gabriele, in the Austro-Italian theater, has been the scene of another vicious but unsuccessful attack by the Austrians in an endeavor to dislodge the Italians from recently captured positions.

What Makes a Car Old.

The life of the bearings of a car determines the usefulness of the entire machine. A car with badly worn bearings is an old car, even though it may have traveled less than 10,000 miles, whereas one which has seen 100,000 miles of use and still has its bearings in good condition is, comparatively speaking, a new machine.

Wear on bearings is determined by four conditions—the load which that bearing carries, the speed at which the bearing surfaces move over each other, the nature of those surfaces and their ability to resist wear and the lubrication which these surfaces receive and its ability to prevent the formation of the destructive heat of friction.

The matter of load becomes a matter of size, for with a given load it is but natural that with a large surface over which to distribute the pressure the load on each square inch of bearing surface will be less. This means that the life of bearings will, in general, be in proportion to their size.—Leslie's Weekly.

Essentials of Song Voice.

Many good singers only think their songs. These fall short of the powers they might attain. The listeners hear the music, but they are not thrilled.

Other singers have feeling, but they fail to display will. Their voices necessarily lack fiber and are too soft and sentimental. Such singing suggests merely passive sympathy and not the desire to help actively.

Good, honest sentiment and the ring of good will, implying action, are wanted in good music. There is no appeal in the song voice that only wills. The voice of authority and domination is not pleasing. The essentials of the song voice embrace all the singer's powers, faculties and attributes. They include not only will, but also thought and feeling, and that voice is lacking which fails to combine all three of these elements.—Exchange.

Flies and Infants Paralysis

Experiments in infecting mosquitoes, houseflies and bluebottle flies with the virus of infantile paralysis, conducted by Drs. Hideo Noguchi and Rotusaburo Kudo in the laboratories of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research and reported by them to the Journal of Experimental Medicine, result in proof that these insects are incapable of infecting monkeys with this disease.

Force and Perseverance

There are two ways of attaining an important end—force and perseverance. Force falls to the lot only of the privileged few, but austere and sustained perseverance can be practiced by the most insignificant. Its silent power grows irresistible with time.—Mme. Swetchine.

RED CROSS NEEDS ARE MADE PLAIN

The Red Cross is in need of soft piece of nainsook, India linen or table linen. Old pieces will do if not broken and frail. These are to be used in hospitals as substitute handkerchiefs and must be eighteen inches square when finished. Table napkins made of old linen must be fourteen inches square. The girls in the domestic art department of the High School will do the hemming. This will make excellent practice work for them and give them an opportunity to do their bit. Housewives are urged to immediately search their chests and bring to the Headquarters corner of Fifth and Front Streets any afternoon this week or next the soft pieces of cloth asked for. The Headquarters will be open from 2 to 5 p. m. and during the next week it is hoped that many more women will come in and register for service in one of the departments. It is hoped none will wait for a personal invitation for all who come will be gladly received by those already at work.

Mrs. J. A. Thabes went to Pequot today to arrange for a Red Cross display at the County Fair. There will be as complete an exhibit as the space granted will allow.

A more complete account of the exhibit and the names of those in charge of the departments will be given later.

GIVE KNITTING DIRECTIONS

Half a million illustrated knitting circulars were sent out today from National headquarters to Red Cross chapters throughout the country. The circulars contain full information on how to knit the eight standardized articles, sleeveless sweaters, mufflers, helmets, socks, wristlets, wash cloths, bed socks and bottle covers, authorized by the Woman's Bureau of the Red Cross.

Recent cables from Major Grayson M. P. Murphy, Red Cross commissioner in France, again emphasize the necessity for warm knitted articles for the men who face the hardships of a winter in the trenches. Army officers request that the knitted articles be forwarded as soon as possible. The severity of winter with a coal shortage to face and a rising tuberculosis rate to combat demand that several million garments reach France before Thanksgiving.

The handbooks issued by the Red Cross are primarily for hand knitters. Knitting machines may be used provided the articles can be as well made and made of the same yarn. The circular is the first of a series to be issued by the Woman's Bureau, of which Miss Florence Marshall is director. Others are to be issued immediately on the making of comfort kifs, the manufacture of hospital garments, surgical dressings and relief kits for the refugee children of France and Belgium.

All of them will be available at the nearest Red Cross Chapter. Sock-knitters are warned that all knots, ridges or lumps should be carefully avoided, as they are apt to blister feet.

Directions for the making of sleeveless sweaters, of which Major Murphy has ordered a million are as follows:

2½ hanks of yarn (5-8 pound); 1 pair Red Cross needles number 3. Cast on 80 stitches. Knit 2, purl 2 stitches for four inches. Knit plain until sweater measures 25 inches. Knit 28 stitches, bind off 24 stitches for neck, loose. Knit 28 stitches. Knit 7 ridges on each shoulder, cast on 24 stitches. Knit plain for 21 inches. Sew up sides, leaving 9 inches for armholes. 2 rows single crochet around neck and 1 row single crochet around armholes.

When You Think of Olive Oil Think of Butter!

Some of it nice, clean, palatable. Some dirty, rancid, rotten. There are three grades of oil from the same olive, only one of which is high grade—that from the first pressing. But think of the many kinds of oil that comes from different olives; some ripe, some green, some even dirty and rotten. For medicinal use certainly one should get the clean pure oil made from healthy ripe olives. And why not for salads too? The price is reasonable.

Cheap and Good Foods.

Some of the best foods are the cheapest. There are carrots, salsify, parsnips, lettuce and such stuff. Carrots have the rarest combination of food qualities of anything that grows. It is so healthful that it is said a steady diet of it will cure many ailments. Parsnips are cheap, good, wholesome. Anybody who doesn't like the taste of a parsnip has his palate put in wrong. Lettuce is cheap, and a lettuce sandwich is royal food. Any one who starves while these things are on the market, to be bought for a few cents, has not much of a claim on life. There is more health in them than in porterhouse steaks or oyster cocktails. Some people affect to think they are a low brow food, but it might be said in retort that they are low browed people who think so.—Columbus (O.) State Journal.

Don't "Come Out of the Kitchen" GO INTO IT

Don't have an empty preserving jar in your home next fall. There may be some difficulty in securing cans and preserving jars.

Reserve regular tight sealing containers for vegetables, concentrated soups, meats and fish. Concentrate products so that each jar or can will hold as much food and as little water as possible.

Put up jams, jellies and preserves in glasses sealed with cork or paper and paraffin. Pack fruit juices in ordinary bottles.

Don't can anything that can be kept just as well dried or in other forms. Dry navy and mature lima beans for winter use.

Produce in your garden lots of cabbage, potatoes and root crops that can be kept for the winter without canning.—United States Department of Agriculture.

Three Servian Words.

Dobra is the general word of assent in Servia. If a doughnut is good—and Serbs make delectable doughnuts in tin pans over camp fires—it is dobra. A good looking girl is dobra, and if she is very good looking she is dobra-dobra. A good speech or a lucky general or a pleasant summer or the word to charge are all dobra.

One can go anywhere in Servia if one is but letter perfect in dobra and naimo, which latter is the general negative. One should also be able to say "Hydy!" with great force and conviction. That is the slang for "hurry." And it is needed, for these Balkan peoples do not like to hurry unless killing is somewhere involved. One's conversation might lack continuity perhaps, but if supplemented by assorted rubs and pattings one need never miss a bed or a meal where a Serb camp fire shines.—Herbert Corey in Saturday Evening Post.

Pop's Definition.

"Tommie, do you know what a prevaricator is?" "Yee'm. Pop told me." "Well, what is a prevaricator?" "Pop says a prevaricator is a man who tells you he's glad he's married."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO WASHWOMEN ORGANIZE UNION.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—High prices for necessities of life have forced the organization of Chicago washerwomen, it was announced here. The first demand of the new union will be for an increase of 50 cents on each wash, making the average price for a day's washing $2.50 instead of $2.10.

TO PURIFY WATER.

Two Safe Ways by Which Typhoid Germs May Be Destroyed.

One cannot judge the purity of water by its looks. Things visible to the naked eye are usually harmless. The invisible germs of disease are by far the more injurious to human beings.

Most people feel that drinking water is safe to use if it is cool, clear, sparkling and free from color or odor. Such is not the case. Even the sparkle may be due to decomposition products. The bubbling brook usually contains more dangerous bacteria than standing water. Streams do not purify themselves by flowing over their rocky beds. The mistaken notion that they do is responsible for a great deal of vacation typhoid fever.

The safest method of destroying disease germs in water is by actual boiling. Boiling the water for five minutes will kill the germs of typhoid and all bad diseases. Chlorine may also be used to disinfect the water.

A stock solution is made by taking a level teaspoonful of full strength chloride of lime and rubbing it up to a thin paste free from lumps in a teaspoon with a little water. This should then be made up to a cupful and diluted with three more cupfuls of water and then poured into a bottle and tightly corked. Add a teaspoonful of this stock solution to each two gallon pail of drinking water, thoroughly mixing it and allowing it to stand for ten minutes. This will give about one-half part of free chlorine to a million parts of water, which will destroy all typhoid or dysentery producing germs.—Exchange.

The Liberty Loan Couldn't Buy Skinner's Baby

Have you never seen one of those proud, perspiring, perturbed, puffed-up persons, a prospective pater?

Skinner was a regular guy, everybody knows that, and the office was willing to stake the payroll on him.

Imagine the sensation when he breezed in like a quarter-horse, breathed at the top of his voice the "info" that McLaughlin, Perkins & Skinner would honor the arrival of "Skinner's Baby" with a holiday?

He neglected to elucidate that he was merely relaying the gladsome tidings from a promise that "Honey" had made him, so the gang took it for gospel.

"It's a Boy," started a stampede that made a bargain counter rush look like "right about face." When he finally came up for air and gasped, "Holiday," they made a hehira for home.

When Skinner hit tee front doorstep he had to hurdle a truck-load of trains, baseball paraphernalia, riding horses and other implements of juvenile warfare for the bunch certainly put a brown crust on everything they cooked up.

And nobody but Honey, Skinner and the officiating Doc knew that the "Stork Limited" was running behind the schedule. Then sad to relate the man of the hour discovered that admission to own celebration was by card only and his invitation had been misplaced. He was playing the lead in "Ousted from His Own Fireside."

However, they took pity on him and finally let him in on the anti-climax—but it almost amounted to a climax when Skinner found out what had occurred. See Skinner's Baby at the

READ THE BOOK—

Skinner's Baby has been published in book form by the Houghton Mifflin Co. It was written by Henry Irving Dodge, author of the famous Skinner's Dress Suit. You will appreciate William Manning Skinner and his wife, Honey, 100 per cent more if you read the books and then see the plays.

CLOTHES HELPED SKINNER'S BABY—

It was just like any other baby, but everybody said it was the "sweetest thing." They didn't know it looked so much better than other babies because "Honey" knew where and how to buy the right kind of clothes that made her baby look different. See our complete line of "Baby Things."

DON'T FORGET THE BABY'S FEET—

We are catering specially to the discerning parents who desire that their children go through childhood without the trouble which arises from improperly fitted shoes. SKINNER SAYS SAVE SOMETHING

Skinner discovered that a little ready cash comes in handy to all of us. Naturally his first sane act after the arrival of his "Baby" was to start a savings account for it. That is just another reason why they spoke of him as a wise young fellow.

Just because you have no baby is no reason for not starting an account with us, and if you have one it is imperative for your own good and the baby's that you start today.

FRENCH CABINET STILL UNFORMED

M. Painleve Is Unable to Organize Ministry.

SOCIALISTS MAIN OBSTACLE

Representatives of Radical Group Decline to Authorize Members of That Party to Figure in Cabinet Where Unified Socialists Are Not Placed.

Paris, Sept. 13.—M. Painleve has not been able to organize a ministry to replace the Ribot cabinet. Several times the former war minister had selected his ministers, but on each occasion new difficulties presented themselves and he was forced to abandon his selections.

M. Painleve's new obstacle is now the socialistic radical group, the representatives of which, Renout, Vincent, Despard, Renard and Long, who were named in the new premier's list, left the first meeting of the tentative cabinet to consult with their party.

Later, in reply to inquiries, they announced that the Socialistic radical group had declined to authorize members of that party to figure in a cabinet where the United Socialists were not represented.

INQUIRY WILL BE DROPPED

Mayor and City Attorney of New Ulm, Minn., Resign.

St. Paul, Sept. 13.—Mayor L. A. Fritzsche and City Attorney Albert Pfaender of New Ulm filed their respective resignations with the city clerk there, following orders by Governor Burnquist suspending them from office pending an investigation on charges of disloyalty for having participated in an alleged anti-draft meeting at New Ulm.

Their resignations, Governor Burnquist said, will end the pending investigation on charges of disloyalty against those officials.

The inquiry will be conducted on a similar charge against Louis Vogel, auditor of Brown county and ex-officio chairman of the local exemption board, the governor said, in the absence of any report of his resignation from office.

SHIPPING SITUATION IS GREATEST CRISIS

London, Sept. 13.—It is learned here that the entente governments have agreed that the shipping situation is the most serious problem of all those facing the entente at the beginning of the fourth winter of the war and every effort will be made during the coming months to impress the people of England and America with the fact that the greatest effort of the whole war will be necessary to solve it. A government official says: "As Britain's great effort of the first year of the war was to create a huge army, as her great effort for the second and third years was to create an inexhaustible supply of munitions, so the great effort of the fourth year must be not only in Great Britain but also in America to create a merchant navy to replace submarine losses and supply the constantly increasing demands."

"There is no disguising the fact that the shipping situation has not grown serious through any increased success of the German submarine warfare. As a matter of fact, the German submarine war is being held down very well and the average sinkings show no increase either in ships or tonnage."

Food Administration Predicts Reduction in Cattle Feed.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Cheaper milk for the consumer is indicated as the hope of the food administration in a statement issued forecasting reductions in cattle feed costs.

A voluntary arrangement between producers and distributors whereby milk prices may be cut is discussed as a possibility when the administration completes its investigation of milk production and distributing costs.

Baltimore, Sept. 13.—Seventeen members of the National Retail Monument Dealers' association were fined in federal court here in addition to a fine of $2,500 imposed on the association.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—A. J. Earling, president of the St. Paul road, announced that H. E. Byram of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad has been selected to succeed him.

The announcement of Mr. Earling was made just before his departure for the West with Percy A. Rockefeller, a director of the railway.

Formal action, it was said, making Mr. Byram president and Mr. Earling chairman of the board of the St. Paul road, will be taken at a meeting of the directors in New York the latter part of the month.

ON WAR CABINET MISSION

Lord Chief Justice of England Visits United States.

An Atlantic Port, Sept. 13.—Viscount Reading, lord chief justice of England, who has arrived in the United States, is here to discuss financial affairs. He will leave soon for Washington. In an interview he said: "I am very glad to find myself again in the United States."

"On this occasion I come on a mission from the British war cabinet—and America is at war—America a nation built on the basis of liberty and distinguished by its great love of peace, has been forced by Germany to fight for freedom and humanity and for the peace of the world."

People Who Rarely Wink.

There are people who rarely wink. How they manage to get along without doing so is a marvel, but somehow or other they do. Some eyes are naturally more moist than others, and the very moist eye does not so much need the assistance of the lids to keep the eyeball bright. It is a constitutional matter, for winking, though under the control of the will, is done so quickly that it is practically an involuntary action. Men wink when they feel that the eye is uncomfortably dry, and when it does not become dry the necessity for winking is not felt.

UNION PRAYER MEETING TONIGHT

All Churches in Union Evangelistic Campaign to Join in Same at Presbyterian Church

REV. SHADDUCK THE LEADER

Work on Tabernacle Building Progressing Exceptionally Well, Wiring Structure Today

Tonight is the time for the union prayer meeting of all the churches engaged in the union evangelistic campaign. The meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church at 7:45 and an attendance from all the churches is looked for.

Rev. B. H. Shadduck will lead the service and will speak on the theme "The Best Known Verse in the Bible." He will occupy part of the time only and will give an opportunity for many to be heard in this consecration service.

The district prayer meetings have not been well attended in certain sections but they are just now getting under way and it is hoped that this meeting tonight will inspire a greater enthusiasm for this most important feature of the entire series—public and private prayer. A general invitation is extended to all to be on hand this evening and have a part in this worship of prayer and praise.

The work today in the building of the tabernacle went exceptionally well. About the largest number of men yet donated their services and a big lot of work was accomplished. There are a few men on hand every day and they are becoming skillful in their work and able to direct others.

The electric light company is putting in the wiring today and are preparing to furnish current by tomorrow night. Carl Maust brought in an automobile load of men from South Long Lake and they were on the job this afternoon. A number of country people are working on the building and more have promised for the remaining days of the week.

Some men are not only working themselves but are hiring an extra hand to work with them. One man gave a fifty dollar check and the ministers made up fifty among themselves to tide over minor incidental expenditures.

A call is hereby sent forth for volunteers to come tomorrow night and do whatever inside work is in need to be done. This will give a chance for many who have not been able to help in the day showing their good will by assisting in the evening. The lights are expected and the crew can work by artificial light in putting in the seats and putting up the platform. Fifty or sixty men can be used to good advantage. Come and bring along hammer and saw.

If present plans materialize the women will be on hand with a cup of coffee and a sandwich. Further announcement will be made in tomorrow's paper.

Next Sunday morning there will be a general exchange of pulpits on the part of the clergy. There has been no time for the preparation of sermons during the past week so the ministers have planned to meet this exigency by a general exodus from their own pulpits. In the afternoon and evening all will meet in the tabernacle ready for the big drive.

CROP REPORT

Rains were Almost General Over the Northwestern Sections, Frost Damages Corn

In the government crop report for the week ending Sept. 12 it is stated rains were almost general over the northwestern sections. They were mostly light to moderate, but heavy at some points, exceeding one inch at Campbell, Minn., and three inches at Redfield, S. D.

Frost occurred in localities from eastern Illinois eastward to the limits of the region and reaching southward to northern Kentucky. It is much warmer in the sections to the westward, except that it is cooler in Montana.

The temperature was below normal in the eastern, central and northern corn states with considerable damage by frost from North Dakota southward to the Lower Lakes region. The damage was slight in the Ohio and central Mississippi valleys.

The frost damage to corn for grain in Wisconsin 40 to 50 per cent, but much less in more southern and eastern states. The temperature was above normal in the southwestern corn states and good progress towards maturity was made. The rainfall was well distributed.

Plowing for winter grains made satisfactory progress, except that it is too dry in the extreme Northwest. The frost damaged other crop in the northern states but they are mostly satisfactory elsewhere.

BILLED N. E. BRD. PLAYED S. E. BRD.

Someone left a notice on the reporter's desk stating that the band concert last night would take place in N. E. Brainerd instead of S. E. Brainerd and a great deal of anxiety was felt by South enders and the reverse was felt on the Northeast side of town.

We trust the mistake did not inconvenience too many people.

As it turned out the evening was fine and a large crowd heard a splendid program rendered on the Harrison school lawn.

The band wishes to announce that on Friday, September 21, they will give their big annual ball at the Gardner auditorium. As will be remembered last year's event was the largest in point of attendance and a good time on record.

Personalities in "Skinner's Baby": Bryant Washburn utilized his real life experience in enacting the role of proud father in "Skinner's Baby" his current Essanay picture. He is a father in real life, you know.

"No home is complete without a baby," is the moral in "Skinner's Baby", the Essanay production featuring Bryant Washburn.

Hazel Daly, creator of the role of Honey in "Skinner's Dress Suit," appears in that characterization in Essanay's sequel, "Skinner's Baby".

Bryant Washburn, starring in the Essanay picture, is 28 years old. Although he is one of the few big screen stars who makes no secret of the fact that he is married.

Lincoln, secretary of the association, attended the meeting of the executive committee of the Northern Minnesota Development Association in Bemidji Sept. 11 and the appropriation of $200 for the Minnesota Potato Growers Association was favorably voted on. In another column further mention is made of this executive committee meeting.

Secretary Lincoln reported receipt of the acknowledgment of the contract for $35 advertising in the Tib Automobile Route Book, receipt of a letter from a Benson physician seeking a location for a therapeutic institute, remittance of a draft for $119.25 to the secretary of the Y. ## ON CARE OF BATTERIES

Full Charged Battery Works Well, Under-Charged Battery Causes Trouble

"A few days ago," says George Johnson, the local Willard expert, "a great labor leader in the country, said that on account of the high price of food that thousands of working men were unable to work at top notch efficiency, that they couldn't afford to buy the proper amount of food to keep them in the best of condition, and that they were trying to do a full day's work on a three-quarters days' rations."

That's precisely what thousands of car owners are doing with their batteries. They are calling on them every day for a full day's work, but keeping them in a three-quarters charged condition.

The result is just the same as it is with a man. The man is apparently in perfectly good health, but slowly the continuous shortage of one-fourth of necessary food is cutting down his vitality.

The full charged battery works well and works a long time. The

Just as shortage in food, be it ever so slight, cuts down the efficiency and vitality of a man, so a shortage from full-charged condition cuts down the vitality and efficiency of the storage battery.

QUIT LONDON AND PARIS

Lack of Coal and Fuel Driving Many to America.

New York, Sept. 13.—A French liner which just arrived at an American port carried a larger number of passengers than has arrived in the United States on any one boat in the last year. Passengers say this is due to the lack of food and coal in London and Paris.

Among the passengers was Miss Mary Garden, who has been in Europe for the last six months, during which time she says she has lost fifteen pounds in weight due to the scarcity of food.

She was decorated with the Red Cross of Serbia, given to her for her work among the wounded Serbians, and the wreath of public devotion, conferred on her by the French government for the work she did in the French hospitals among the wounded.

Naval Captains.

The saying runs that as soon as a lieutenant is made a commander he begins to carry a stick, and as soon as a commander becomes a captain he "turns religious." For justification of the latter part of this assertion there exists the undoubted fact that naval captains are mostly serious minded men who give some thought to the greater things of life. Possibly their hours of loneliness may conduce to this frame of mind, though for the most part their leisure hours are given up to study of matters connected with their calling. One well known captain there was, who used to hold prayer meetings, which any member of the ship's company could attend. "Remember, there are no rates to be picked up here," the captain would warn them before the meetings started, meaning that any one who came there hoping to curry favor and thus get promotion would be disappointed. And in this the captain was always as good as his word.—London Mail.

ORDERS ARREST OF KORNILOFF

Premier Seeks Capture of Russian Revolt Leader.

KERENSKY TAKES COMMAND

Cabinet Head Will Direct Armies and It Is Reported General Alexieff Will Become Chief of Staff—Government Manifesto Says Mutiny Has Proven Failure.

Petrograd, Sept. 13.—Premier Kerensky has ordered the arrest of General Korniloff and his adherents, at the same time issuing a manifesto that any act of treason to the provisional government will be promptly and severely punished.

The edict marked the accession of Kerensky as commander-in-chief of the armies of Russia, succeeding General Korniloff. It is reported General Alexieff is to be made chief of the general staff.

Prompt action in defense of the country against Germany is promised by Kerensky, who says in his manifesto that "the senseless mutiny of the late commander-in-chief and a small group of his generals has ended in complete failure."

A hint that the revolt has been ended without any military struggle is contained in the statement, which says:

Revolution Is Bloodless.

"The bloodless liquidation of the mutiny shows the wisdom of the Russian people and its army and navy in the persons of its generals, admirals, officers and soldiers who, in the face of a stern enemy, remained loyal to their duty to the fatherland and their legal government."

The manifesto declares Kerensky's complete faith in all the ranks of the army and navy.

Those whose arrest as rebels was ordered, in addition to General Korniloff, are:

General Lokonsky, chief of the general staff.

General Markoff, the chief of the headquarters staff on the southwestern front.

M. Kislakoff, assistant to the minister of roads and communications.

MARKED DECREASE IN VESSELS SUNK

London, Sept. 13.—A marked decrease in the destruction of British merchant vessels by mines or submarines is indicated in the weekly admiralty issue.

Twelve vessels of more than 1,600 tons and six of less than 1,600 tons were sent to the bottom, as compared with twenty in the large and three in the small category sunk the previous week. Four fishing vessels also were lost.

This statement shows the smallest number of large British vessels sunk by mines or submarines since Germany last February began its submarine campaign.

The previous low record was for the week of March 11, when thirteen vessels of more than 1,600 tons were lost.

GERMAN PLANS MISCARRY

Paraguayan Minister Comments on Latin America.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Peace and independence in Latin America depend on the moral support of the United States, said Dr. Cecilio Baez, Paraguayan minister and former president of Paraguay, in a statement.

"The present war proves conclusively," said Dr. Baez, "that our young republics still need the protection of the United States in order to live peacefully with each other and to be assured freedom from aggression on the part of the military powers of the world which aspire to control our destinies."

"Germany was ready to provoke a war of conquest in Latin America in order to be better prepared to fight the United States and England. Fortunately that infernal scheme has failed completely."

LIBERTY MOTOR IS TESTED

New Airplane Engine Proves Complete Success.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The Liberty motor, the airplane engine on which the United States is relying to establish definite air supremacy over the Germans over the battlefields of France, has passed its final test and is a complete and gratifying success, Secretary Baker announced.

In a 1,500-word announcement Secretary Baker told how all the best brains and business of American motordom had contributed its secrets and achievements to the government to produce the Liberty motor, which is to carry the thousands of American airplanes over Germany.

BUTTE STRIKE NEAR END

Smeltermen's Union Accepts Terms of Anaconda Company.

Anaconda, Mont., Sept. 13.—Settlement of labor troubles which have hampered the mining industry of the Butte district for the last three months is in sight following the acceptance by the local smeltermen's union of the terms offered by the Anaconda Copper Mining company.

Reopening of the Anaconda smelter, which is expected to follow immediately, will permit the resumption of operations in the Butte mines, closed since the smelter shut down Aug. 24.

OFFER BIG ACREAGE FOR SHEEP GRAZING

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Three million acres of grass land in upper Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan were offered to prospective sheep raisers free of charge except taxes at the closing session of the Great Lakes wool convention.

The offer was made by the development associations of the three states, acting in conjunction with the national sheep and wool bureau in its campaign for increased wool production in the United States.

The organization offering the 3,000,000 acres of land for sheep raising are the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau of Michigan, the Wisconsin Advancement association and the Minneapolis Civic and Commercial association. W. C. Bissell of the Wisconsin association made the announcement and was cheered by the delegates.

ASSISTANTS GIVE WILSON MUCH AID

But He Takes Charge of All Important White House Papers.

REPLY TO POPE AN EXAMPLE

This Document Was So Absolutely Wilsonian That It Is Doubtful if Any One Else Wrote One Single Word of It. Negroes Present a Vexing Problem in Time of War.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Sept. 13.—[Special.]—President Wilson cannot read and sign all the proclamations, orders, statements, directions, commissions, etc., which come from the White House with his approval. It would be physically impossible for him to do so. Most of the proclamations and orders are prepared for him in departments.

But it may be safely assumed that he takes charge of all the big papers. Take the reply to the peace note of Pope Benedict, which was so Wilsonian that no one gave Secretary Lansing credit for a line of it, although his name was signed to it.

Negroes and the War.

"The colored troops fought nobly" was a sentence in a report of a Union general of a battle during the civil war. It is a matter of record that the negro regiments have shown valor in Indian campaigns, in Cuba, the Philippines and Mexico. And yet negro troops are a serious problem for war department authorities.

Protests are made against negro soldiers in the same camp with white soldiers. Counter protests are made by negro leaders against the segregation of negroes in camps by themselves.

Another Question Raised.

And then the question has been raised as to whether the negroes can be trained as quickly as the white troops. It is said that they may be held here several months in order to complete their training and that it will be a long time before colored troops are sent to Europe.

Opposed to this idea is that of the parents of young officers assigned to colored troops. They want to get them transferred to white regiments in the belief that the colored troops will be thrust forward first in the hottest of the fighting and officers and men will be killed.

Stone's Defense.

In Senator Stone's rather remarkable address defending himself from the many attacks that have been made upon him he created surprise by going out of his way to defend his colleague, Senator Reed. He asserted that Reed in his fight to secure modification of the food law had accomplished a great deal which was worthy of commendation. Both of the Missouri senators have been under a ban of criticism on account of the antagonistic position they had taken in regard to several administration war measures, although Senator Stone says that, aside from opposing the war resolution, he has voted for all of the other war measures asked by the president.

Charges of Favoritism.

It is a little early in the war to hear charges of favoritism in connection with contracts, appointments, etc. A little later we may expect a great deal of it, particularly when some one takes the pains to analyze the list of people who have been given places.

It is perfectly natural for men in positions of influence to look after their relatives and friends in the matter of contracts, appointments in the army or other appointments in the public service. On this account it is sure to happen where many such appointments are made that relatives and friends of people in high positions will be among those chosen. Such things are inevitable under war conditions.

The Greatest of Problems.

This matter of raising the revenue has become one of the greatest problems that the congress of the United States has ever faced. The difficulty is in getting enough money without unduly stopping the business of the country. The main effort has been to find the line of demarcation where heavy taxes will secure the most revenue and do the least harm. There has been grave danger all the time that taxation will be levied in such a way as to injure business, but there is a promise that such will not be the case.

His Own Expert.

There was a colloquy between Senator Bankhead of Alabama and Senator Smoot of Utah over some figures which Smoot had used in connection with the revenue bill. Bankhead asked if the figures were those of the expert of the finance committee, particularly the estimate as a result of the figures.

"I do not have to ask any one for the result of figures," replied Smoot. "I can figure results just as well as any expert that ever lived."

Vardaman a Peacemaker.

When Senator Simmons of North Carolina and Senator La Follette of Wisconsin had their "scrap" recently Senator Vardaman of Mississippi majestically arose and remarked: "I rise in the interest of harmony. The question before the senate is too serious a matter for senators in the discussion of it to lose their heads."

But the harmony failed to materialize.

SERIES OF ARMED CAMPS

Harvard President's View if World War Is a Draw.

New York, Sept. 13.—The whole world a series of armed camps, preparing for another fray and compelled to adopt German methods of warfare—this picture of the result of a drawn battle with Germany in her present state of mind, was presented by Dr. A. Lawrence Lowell, president of Harvard university and chairman of the executive committee of the League to Enforce Peace, in his address at the annual dinner of the National Safety Council.

He declared that with the fall of military autocracy must be removed the oppression of one race by another and for that reason "we cannot consider the return to Germany of her former colonies, that their people may be exploited as they have been in the past."

RESOLUTION AIMED AT DRAFT IS KILLED

Washington, Sept. 13.—Denouncing the introduction of such a proposition the senate military committee reported adversely Senator Hardwick's resolution which would provide that the consent of every drafted man must be obtained before he is required to perform foreign service.

The committee, the report says, believes the draft law is constitutional and that every man drafted into the national army can be used abroad.

"The situation arising out of this spirit of opposition to the selective draft act is serious," says the report, "and taken in connection with the unrest among the civilian population growing out of commercial and industrial conditions, stimulated in some cases doubtless by pro-German sympathizers and propagandists, places our country in a situation of extreme peril at a time when all should be united in a common cause."

EASTERN STATES PROTEST

Coal Order Favoring Northwest Is Objected To.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Representatives of Ohio manufacturing interests protested to the fuel administration that a recent order giving preference to coal shipments to the Northwest is draining their state of coal and forcing factories to close.

Dr. H. A. Garfield, the fuel administrator, assured the delegation that the consumer will be cared for and that Robert S. Lovett, the government's director of priority shipments, is modifying the ruling to release slack coal held at lake ports for use in Ohio.

Creed of Epicures.

When St. Paul addressed "epicureans and stoics" (Acts xvii, 18) at Athens the philosophy of life was practically reduced to the teaching of these two antagonistic schools.

Pleasure and not absolute truth was the end at which Epicurus aimed. His system degenerated into mere materialism, and in this form epicureanism was the popular philosophy at the beginning of the Christian era.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scaling, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Do Something Better Than the Other Fellow--- and ADVERTISE

Do Something Better Than the Other Fellow--- and ADVERTISE

Advertising cannot accomplish the impossible any more than barren ground can yield rich crop.

But how advertising does make things hum when the product and proposition are right, the men and methods above board, when there's an honest purpose and earnest effort from bundle boy to general manager to serve efficiency, to deal honestly, to sell good goods, to price fairly.

Oil up the machinery of your business, imbue your organization with the spirit of true service, make your business worthy of the good will, the confidence, the patronage of the people.

In this fertile field then sow the seed of advertising and it will bring forth abundant crops in increased business and augmented prestige.

Your store news in the Dispatch will be read in practically every home in Brainerd and vicinity every evening.

Backache

In spite of the best care one takes of oneself, any part of the human machine is liable to become out of order. The most important organs are the stomach, heart and kidneys.

The kidneys are the scavengers and they work day and night in separating the poisons from the blood. It is only reasonable to believe that they are liable to derangement. Their signals of distress, however, are easily recognized and include such symptoms as backache, depressions, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic twinges, dropsy, gout.

"The very best way to restore the kidneys to their normal state of health," says Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., "is to drink plenty of pure water and obtain from your favorite pharmacy a small
